

GAME KAHOOT

THINK 20 QUESTION+ANSWER

1. What are the two temperature scales that affect the colour appear in the photo?(i, ii)
 - Warm colour scale
 - Cool colour scale
 - White colour scale
 - Black colour scale
2. What is the characteristic of cold colour type pictures?(i, iv)
 - Colour of the picture is more blue-ish
 - Colour of the picture is more yellow-ish
 - The picture look to bright for the audience
 - The picture darker and might hide a lot of details
3. In photography, which colour type is correct?(ALL)
 - Cold
 - Warm
 - Natural
4. If the photo that is taken is in the natural colour type, how do you change it to a cold or warm type? (ALL)
 - Put transparent cellophane colour paper in front the camera
 - Using filter when taking the picture
 - Using "White Balancing (WB)" setting in camera
5. When a warm colour temperature is applied, what mood is shown in the picture?(i,iii)
 - Happy
 - Calmness
 - Energy
 - mystery
6. If you want to take a nostalgic or subtle picture, how will you take it?(ii,iv)
 - High contrast
 - Low contrast
 - High vibrant colour
 - Low vibrant colour
7. In photography, what is the use of light reflection?(i,iii)
 - add depth, dimension, and visual interest
 - Overexpose the subject
 - reveal some details that are usually not visible from your angle.
 - Erase shadows completely
8. Which answer is wrong to manage glare?(i)
 - Shoot at noon for the brightest light
 - Attach a lens hood onto your camera lens
 - Try to aim your camera away from the light source
 - Use surrounding objects to reduce/remove glare
9. What is the usage of lens hood?(ii)
 - Change the aperture size
 - Blocks light from other sources (like sun) coming into it

- Zoom in on distant objects
 - Increase the sharpness of the lens
10. How do backlighting affect pictures?(i,iii,iv)
- Silhouette or Halo
 - Removes all shadows
 - Rim lighting
 - Emotional impact
11. What are the tips and tricks for backlighting?(i,iv)
- Positioning of Light Sources
 - Use the flash directly on the subject
 - Stand far from the subject
 - Exposure
12. What are the types of light that you can use as complementary light sources?(i,ii,iv)
- Diffusers
 - Artificial Lights
 - Black Foam Board
 - Light Reflectors
13. What are the tips and tricks for a proper fill lighting?(ii,iii)
- Use only one bright light source
 - Balancing with the Main Light Source
 - Position and Angle
 - Use flash without diffusion
14. Which of the following is not a kind of POV? (D)
- Eye Level (Normal)
 - Bird's Eye View (High Angle)
 - Bird's Eye View (Low Angle)
 - Bird's Eye View (Middle Angle)
15. Which of the following is the reason to use eye-level shot? (i, iii, iv)
- Enhance Understanding
 - Easy to Use
 - More Memorable
 - Conveying Emotional
16. Below are some types of photography genres. Identify the one that is irrelevant. (B)
- People Photography
 - Animal Photography
 - Bird Photography
 - Macro Photography
17. What is the key difference between high-angle and low-angle perspectives? (B)
- For a low-angle shot, tilt the screen to 90°, and for a high-angle shot, tilt it to 45°
 - High-angle: camera above subject; Low-angle: camera below subject

- Low-angle: taken while sitting; High-angle: taken while standing or holding the camera up
- High-angle: makes the subject look taller; Low-angle: makes the subject look

18. What feeling that high angle shot can simulate? (A)

- Anxiety
- Happy
- Sad
- Angry

19. What is an unconventional perspective? (A)

- Capturing a subject from an uncommon seen
- Capturing a subject from high
- Capturing a subject behind a frame
- Capturing a subject that is colourful

20. Which of the following is not a reason for post-editing? (c)

- Keep the horizontal even and the vertical lines vertical
- To zoom to show impact, especially portraits or head-shots
- To reduce the resolution of the image for printing
- To trim away distracting elements

quiziz grp 2

